

Authority for Variation of Centrelink Deductions

PLEASE READ THIS FIRST

If you are a tenant, or household member, and currently pay your rent or other payments out of your Centrelink payments (Centrepay) you can complete and sign this consent form to allow Wentworth Community Housing (Wentworth) to request a variation to the amount of your Centrelink deduction.

Each time there is a change to your rent or other payments Wentworth can request a variation to your deductions to meet the amounts.

If consent is provided:

- Wentworth will request a variation to your deduction each time your rent or other payment changes.
- Where the rent change results in an outstanding debit balance of less than thirty ($30) dollars on your rental account, Wentworth will adjust the deduction to include an extra five ($5) dollars per fortnight until the balance is cleared
- Wentworth can also request a variation to your Centrelink deduction, as a result of an agreed arrears repayment agreement for rent, water or other outstanding payment

Wentworth will provide written notice of any proposed changes to your deduction, providing no less than 14 days notice.

If you want to stop or change these variations all you have to do is tell Wentworth or Centrelink. You will need to make alternative arrangements to pay your rent or other payments.

When completing this form it is important that you make sure you have completed your full name, date of birth, Centrelink reference number and that you have signed the consent form in the box provided.
